1.00 Objective

Members of Council for the Town of Essex (“Town”) recognize that they have been entrusted by their constituents to serve the public interest in a professional, responsible, transparent and accountable manner.

The Code of Conduct for Members of Council outlines the principles of good conduct and ethics that Council Members are expected to demonstrate in the performance of their duties as elected officials. The Code of Conduct supplements statutes, legislation and policies that also govern Council conduct including, but not limited to:

- Municipal Act, 2001;
- Municipal Conflict of Interest Act;
- Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act;
- Municipal Elections Act, 1996;
- Criminal Code of Canada;
- Ontario Human Rights Code;

- Occupational Health and Safety Act; and
- Town of Essex Policies and By-Laws.

2.00 Purpose

The purpose of this Policy is to establish standards of conduct for Members of Council that ensure Council Members carry out their duties in a manner that reflects the following six key principles:

2.01 Integrity

Council Members will uphold the highest standard of ethical behaviour including:

- a) Making impartial decisions that benefit the municipality and are fair and equitable to all residents;
- b) Upholding both the letter and the spirit of Federal and Provincial laws and the laws and policies adopted by the Town; and
- c) Being free from undue influence and not acting for personal gain or the gain of a Council Member's family, friends or business interests.

2.02 Accountability

Council Members are responsible for their decisions, including the act of not making a decision when a decision is expected or the act of making a decision that results in harm. Decision-making processes must be transparent and subject to public scrutiny.

2.03 Responsibility

Council Members will act responsibly, within the law and within the Town's policies and procedures, including the Code of Conduct for Members of Council. This includes:

- a) Disclosing actual or potential conflicts of interest related to a Member's public duties;

- b) Taking steps to resolve a conflict for the protection of the public interest;
- c) Following the letter and spirit of policies and procedures; and
- d) Exercising all conferred powers strictly for the purpose for which the powers have been conferred.

2.04 Leadership

Council Members will demonstrate and promote the key principles of the Code of Conduct through their decisions, actions and behaviour. A Council Member's behaviour must build and inspire the public's trust and confidence in local government.

2.05 Respect

Council Members will conduct themselves efficiently, with decorum and with proper attention to the Town's Procedural By-Law. They will treat each other and others with respect at all times, which includes not using derogatory language, respecting the rights of other people, treating people with courtesy, and recognizing the different roles others play in local government decision-making.

2.06 Openness

Council Members have a duty to be as open as possible about their decisions and actions. This means communicating appropriate information openly to the public about decision-making processes and issues being considered, encouraging appropriate public participation, communicating clearly and providing an appropriate means for recourse and feedback.

17.00 Annual Report by the Integrity Commissioner

The Integrity Commissioner shall report to Council on complaints received and dealt with during a calendar year and may also report on complaints that were received but were not within the jurisdiction of the Integrity Commissioner. Should no complaints be received within a calendar year, the Integrity Commissioner will advise the Clerk that no annual report will be made by the Integrity Commissioner and the Clerk shall advise Council accordingly.
