

As its May 4, 2026 Regular Council Meeting of the Town of Essex approved the following proclamation:

Proclamation

Royal Canadian Legion Centennial Day
July 17, 2026

Whereas, the Royal Canadian Legion has served as a cornerstone of support for veterans, military families, and the broader community across Canada since its founding in 1925;

Whereas, the Royal Canadian Legion, Essex Branch 201, has proudly served the Town of Essex and surrounding communities for 100 years, providing essential services, remembrance initiatives, and community leadership;

Whereas, the Royal Canadian Legion, Essex Branch 201, preserves the legacy and sacrifices of those who have served, advocates for the well-being of veterans and their families, and fosters a strong sense of community through charitable work, local events, and ongoing support of residents; and

Whereas, 2026 marks the 100th anniversary of the Royal Canadian Legion in Essex, representing a century of dedication, remembrance, and community engagement, and the Town of Essex encourages all residents to honour this milestone and reflect on the contributions of veterans past and present.

Therefore, I, Sherry Bondy, Mayor of the Town of Essex, do hereby proclaim July 17, 2026, as "Royal Canadian Legion Centennial Day" in the Town of Essex, and encourage all residents to recognize and celebrate this significant milestone.

Sherry Bondy
Mayor of the Town of Essex
